First, A Word

Every year, the Drumbea staff is faced with the difficult task of selecting a theme for the yearbook that pertains to the activities affecting our lives here at Carasauqua High School. After much consideration, this year's staff decided on a "soap opera" theme for our 1980 production. Now you may ask yourself, "What does this have to do with our daily routine here at school?" Well, let me explain. First, let us look at what the Thorndike-Barnhart High School Dictionary has to say:

SOAP OPERA (sōp' op' ə t ə), n., a daytime television drama presented in serial form, usually featuring emotional domestic situations.

Since all our lives are characterized by emotional ups and downs, I think that the title The Day of Our Lives is an appropriate one.

From our first day of school until the very last, we face many emotional and, quite often, very dramatic situations. No one can ever forget that horrifying first day of kindergarten and the little girl in the back of the room crying for her mommy. As the days rolled on, we became more familiar and relaxed with the school atmosphere and even attempted to make new friends. However, the dramatics did not stop there.

In elementary school, we fell upon new emotional situations. We finally learned to read and were able to decipher those messages scribbled on the walls of public restrooms, and our parents could no longer spell things aloud to other adults which they did not want us to hear.

From Our Sponsor

Much to our dismay, along with this vast amount of intellectual knowledge, came the dreaded oral book reports in front of the whole class! Remember those sweaty palms and the sudden urge to run to the lavatory? Around the fourth grade, we reached the point where we started to take notice of members of the opposite sex, be it good or bad. "Boy and Girl Germs" seemed to be a growing epidemic throughout the halls! Luckily, the number of hospital cases was limited!

With this sudden interest in boy-girl relationships came the trauma of our first kiss, which eventually led to our first lover's quarrel and a broken heart. But somehow we always managed to survive.

In high school, it was the rise in competition in sports, for high grades, and of course, for popularity that made things so unbearable. Many mind boggling questions began to worry our little heads. "Will I make the track team?" "Is it possible to pass a calculus test?"

"Can we skip health class without getting caught?" "Who will ask me to the dance on Friday night?" For the answers to these and many more tormenting dilemmas, please stay tuned.

SENIORS: SEARCH

So Close,

One day in the cold winter of 1979, the members of the class of 1980 began making only a few of the many decisions they will be faced with in the future. The senior class officers, Jim Schaffer, president, Alan Heckman, vice-president, Laura Plara, treasurer; Missy Fedor, secretary, and Angie Litta, historian, selected a few choices for each of the following categories that the seniors were to vote on. The following were chosen as the class colors, class flower, and class motto.

winning the year 1928. Jumped???

There was a great year for the country. Since then they have been in the country every four years. This year the world gathered in the New York City Water Olympic Games.

Americans have witnessed several from members of the United States. Various swimming events. The and Peggy Fleming astounded the world with their brilliant performances on the ice.

This year at Lake Placid The American team won the Games. The U.S. team performed in figure skating. But the team finished a heartbreaking second behind the Soviet Union. Tai Bobionio and Randy Gardner, the critics choice to overcome Rodnina and Zaitzev from the were forced to withdraw from the competition due to injury.

The Gold!

The American hockey team surprised everyone with its first place finish after defeating the former Soviet Union team and outdaring the rest of their opponents with their outstanding play. Eric Heiden, in speed skating, became the first individual ever to earn five gold medals in any Olympic games. It is apparent that in 1980, America had "gold rush fever" and went for the gold at the 1980 Lake Placid Games.

Wake Us In

Finally, after three years as underclassmen, the members of the Class of '80 gained their senior lounge privileges. The seniors reached the epitome of high school days — spending study halls in the lounge instead of dull, boring classrooms.

Dull and boring are the last two words that could be used to describe what goes on in the lounge. Of course, much studying and cramming for tests excited, but it did in the regular study halls. But in the lounge, anything goes!

Fresh piles ranked number one on the list for popularity. Male-female fights and harassment were another attraction. And when the studies calmed down, it was not unusual to find them sleeping.

Some lounge members were notorious for their bad behavior, kept them in constant trouble with the principal. They were known for feeding the animals. Some brought in Fritos, doughnuts, pretzels and various others goodies to distribute throughout the lounge.

Time For The Weekend!

Holidays were regular parties. The decorating committee adorned the lounge with all sorts of goodies suited to every occasion. During the Christmas season, the seniors had their own tree, and strings of lights lined the windows and doors. On Valentine's Day, hearts and couples' names were posted all over the lounge walls, and during the Thanksgiving psyche-up celebration, streamers and signs were everywhere.

All of this and much more became a part of the seniors' terrific memories of their lounge.

Women And

The United States' unstable relations with Iran caused reconsideration of an enforcement of the draft. This draft would not be like any other though; this one would include women as well as men in the troops preparing for battle.

Equal rights for women has been a big dispute in the U.S.A. for the past couple of years. Women believe they should be treated equally; they feel they should have the same wages for any job they wish to do, they should earn the same respect in the business world that men receive, and they should benefit from the same opportunities that men have in all walks of life. These opportunities include going to war, just like the male population of the nation.

These opinions, however, are not those of everyone. Many women enjoy their roles in life and are very content with being wives and mothers. Congress also considers the fact that women may not be capable in combat.

The amendment has not been passed in all states, and Congress has not passed the draft.

The Draft

including women But no one knows what the future holds for women. By the time the U.S.A. goes to war again, women may be expected to go also, either on the battle field, or in the hospitals backing up the front lines.

Women have proven themselves equal to men in many situations, so in a little more time, they may be proving themselves just as capable as soldiers.

Music Trends

During the last few years, high school students listened to the fast, light beat of disco, which at ways was heard on the radio and at school dances. These songs satisfied our desires and kept us content until a New Wave of music hit so suddenly that the word "disco" became obsolete. What was this type of new music, with its heavy dash of guitars and special effects? You guessed it — hard rock and punk. A drastic change had occurred in the music world and these new groups became the seeds of a new revolution.

The punk style brought about both strange and odd things. One was the practice of wearing safety pins on pants, jockers, and even purses. The hair styles changed from waves and curls to a short, dipped style. Some people even dyed their hair flamboyant colors — red, orange, and blue. The leather jockers and chains of the 1950's became popular again in the world of punk rockers.

The "in" groups ranged from Sister Sledge and Donna Summers to new acts like The Ramones.

Olympic Hope

Mike Jones, a junior at Carasauquo High School, could be Olympic material for a future hockey team. His skating career began 8 years ago on the Catty frozen canal near his house. Five years ago, he started playing street hockey after being inspired by a Rangers game on television. He put the two together and acquired his talent at ice hockey. Mike plays at Albert Ice Palace in the Delaware Valley and New Jersey area team. His future plans include attending the Lake Huron Hockey camp in Canada this July and gaining a position on the Lehigh Valley Flyers minor league team.

As the 10th Winter Olympics rolled into Lake Placid, NY in February of 1980, the United States looked ahead desperately for a possible bronze medal in the hockey competition. This seemed to be the only chance of a medal for the young and inexperienced group of college kids who had just been demolished by a devastating Soviet team 10-3 less than a week before the Olympic competition began. But in light of this fact, the nervous American youngsters pulled out a startling 2-2 tie with Sweden.

For The Future

After this and the first quarter of their next game against the second-seeded Czechoslovaks, the Americans suddenly relaxed and started playing their own game. They went on to upset the powerful Czechs 7-3. Their next victims were the Norwegians whom they defeated 5-1. Romania 7-2 and West Germany 7-1. These impressive wins set the team up for the medal round. Unfortunately they were matched against the top-seeded USSR in the opening match. Although they were out of sync, they pulled away miraculously in the second quarter to win the sportsworld with a 4-3 victory. They then defeated the checking Finnish team 3-1 to gain the bronze medal. Coached by Jim Craig and Mark Johnson, the Americans routed the Finns 4-2 and capture the silver medal. They were accepted in front of a jam-packed arena and worldwide television viewers. History will be made as they continue in the future City of Games to win the gold medal, the victory and American pride.

Fashion Fads

Fashion, by definition, is the current style or mode of dress, speech, and conduct. Whether we know it or not, the fashions of the world are reflected even in a small school like ours. In terms of body attire, baggy and designer jeans adorn female forms everywhere, and velvet shirts and thick "preppie" wool sweaters are enjoying widespread popularity. To accent the female ensemble, oversize blazers and neckties are added.

As for the latest shoe fashions, female (as well as male) feet everywhere are contained in favorites such as various styles of sneakers, heavy duty hiking boots, docksides, and wooden dogs. For the guys, fashion remains constant. Tee-shirts bearing the logos of everything imaginable show off the male physique and blue jeans are still the mode.

With the increasing popularity of punk rock, students are donning a conglomerate of ties, blazers, suspenders, and of course, safety pins

The current hair styles are becoming shorter also, as a result of the punk style, and the plaid "Bo Derek" look is gaining followers. All in all, fashion is a changing world and we at Catawba are doing our best to keep "in style"

Give Our Regards

Some of the seniors' most enjoyable and memorable times were the ones spent on one day trips to New York. Each trip served as an educational experience, relaxation, and a break from school, but most of all, tons of fun.

The bus left faithfully at 8:00 A.M. and arrived in New York at 10:00. Students disembarked in front of Radio City Music Hall and dispersed throughout the area in a matter of seconds. Everyone was on their own until the 2:45 rendezvous in front of the theatre. This was the highlight of each trip. All plays seen, like Perer Pan and Deathtrap, were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Before each day, the seniors visited the sights and scenes of their choice. The World Trade Center observation deck, the Empire State Building, the New York Experience, Saks Department Store, the "punk" shops, the various museums, and Central Park were all favorites of the student populous. Most groups munched out after exploring the city during their free hours. Deefstreak Charlie's, Tad's, and good ole McDonald's served as big eating favorites.

To Broadway

After the play, everyone welcomed the long ride home, as they were exhausted after a day of New York scurrying. A dinner break at Somerville Inn served as a refueling spot and a pleasant switch from the road for the weary travelers. Finally, after stuffing themselves once more, all returned home to Castasauqua High School. Majority ruled, and majority always said they had a great time!

Ode To The

As the bell sounds, herds of hungry students stampede across the bridge and down the stairs.
What's all this commotion about? It's lunch time at Corry High and everyone is anxious to see what is on the menu for the day. Could it be oven brown chicken or meat ravioli in tomato sauce? A typical Friday lunch consists of fish, a hoogie or pizza accompanied by green beans, creamed cabbage, a fresh apple and milk. A grueling task for new freshmen is deciding whether to choose chocolate, white, or non-fat milk.

The peach-peanut butter salad is a specialty here in our cafeteria. It contains a peach half and a spoonful of chewy peanut butter. Truly delicious!
Another all-time favorite is the assorted pastries which offers the student a choice of a piece of cake or a cookie!

This year the school cafeteria tried new frozen vegies. Everyone seemed to think they brightened up the meals, making them a real treat. A popular topic around the school is the ever-famous party.
These cute devils with their clever little shapes are Graduation?? Already?? It's very hard to believe that the Class of '80 is ready to graduate from high school and plunge into the complex world of adulthood. Why, it seems like only yesterday that we entered the good ole North Cary school building for our big first day of kindergarten. Sharing common interests and floundering around in our specific cliques, we were all very much alike.

Remember Trooper Rosseye and his amazing team of German Shepherds, getting off three afternoons for parent teacher conferences, our own construction of the human ear in Mrs. Block's fifth grade health class, "Good Morning, Mrs. Birner!", slambooks and wacky pack snickers, the big nose and our debut as germs in Mrs. DeHoven's class, when Andy played Santa in the Christmas show, those great PTA ice cream festivals, the Middle School Review, those silly commercials making people's gym suits and having to stay after school, Miss Casella's famous fiestas with skulls and the whole pit when Shiper yelled "Fire!" and Mrs. Rorison's jet hysteria collecting rock bugs and leaves, Mr. Semmer's crows and Driscoll's M-Buss's "White and Joy" raping, Kirk and Mike's hairs in their desks, trying to beat the record in the necking contests, "Seasons in the Sun" the annual track meets getting detention for chewing gum in the classroom, losing your own running to homework to get a sewing machine, poisoning Mrs. Meier just to get the EX-WHY course when Mrs. Perlick broke the salt shaker, spelling bees, the glossary game and the amoeba game with the prize of getting a drink of water, Frury's class, fire drills, when Kathy

The Team With Determination

The 1979 Rough Rider football season at Carasauqua brought many tense and exciting moments. The Roughies came firing out of the starting gate with a thrilling 76 victory over an impressive and aggressive Plus X team. Ever though the Roughies dropped three of the next five games, the hard work paid off in the end as rookie coach Ed Csencsirs and his assistants guided the Roughies to a strong finish, ending the season with an overall record of 6-4-1. All season long the Roughies featured a solid ground game with running backs "Smiley" Sell and Fred Hutterer. When they decided to go to the air, quarterback Carl Erie had sure handed receiver Mike Ball, Mick Firestone, Jim Schaffer, Mike... and Blair Fehrer.

One of the major highlights of the season was a 27-19 victory over previous... Wilson Boro. In the game the... very impressive stalwart defense... explosive offense.

JV's Undefeated Champs

The Catasauqua Jayvee football team proved to be awesome as they trounced all of their opponents and went on to an undefeated season which brought their overall record to 11-0. The Roughies were led by a balanced running game which featured a powerhouse backfield including Ryan Rogusky, Chris Gerhard, and Bill Coolbaugh. The aerial attack, led by quarterback Marty Mirtura, gave the Roughies an explosive offense which scored a total of 307 points. The Rough Riders defense played impressively all season long and held their opponents to a meager 46 points with 5 shutouts.

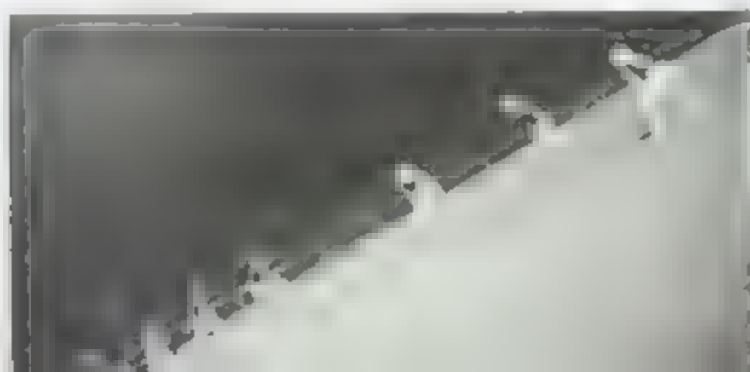

This season marked the second consecutive Colonial League Championship for veteran coaches May and Hawrylo. Highlighting the season was an exciting victory over Nazareth. The season reached its climax as Catasauqua totally humiliated arch-rival Northampton.

Next year's season looks bright as this team joins an excellent crop of seniors.

Best Record Ever For Frosh!

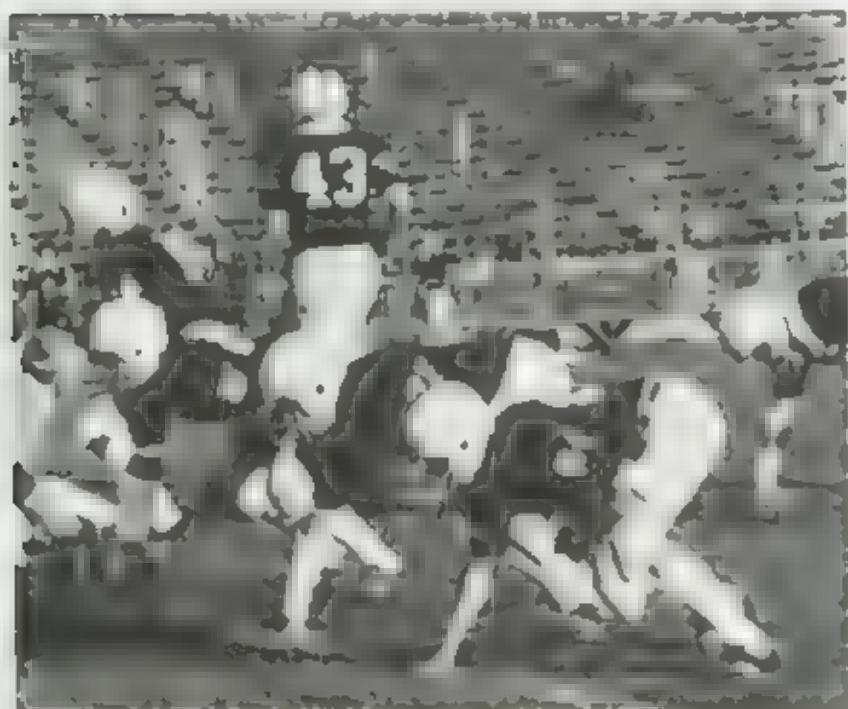

This year's turnout for the freshmen football team was very small in number but they worked hard to grow as a unit and, in the end, proved numbers or size mean nothing by wrapping up their first high school season with a very impressive 7-0-1 record. These win-loss statistics were the best ever posted by a freshman football team.

The Roughies, under the watchful eyes of veteran coach Bob Hassler and newcomer Stanley Kira, dominated the majority of their opponents and showed excellent poise when crucial moments and "do-or-die" situations arose.

The only blemish on their record was a hard fought contest which ended in a tie against their much larger opponents - The Whitehall Zephyrs. They also had an impressive win over their archrivals from Northampton.

Cross Country Run To Successful Season

With a 17 win, 4 loss record, the 1979 boys cross country team had the most successful season in the school's history. Coached by Mr. Al Heller, the team showed consistent strength and depth throughout the season. In Colonial League action the team tied Southern Lehigh for second place behind champion Palisades High School. The Rough Riders placed second in the league championship meet at our home course. Scoring for Carasaquua in the league meet were Seniors Scott Harford, team captain, in sixth place, Rick Maser, eleventh, and Bernie Cunningham, fifteenth. Juniors Mike MacLaughlin and Frank Troxell finished seventeenth and thirty fourth respectively. Sophomores Don Seyfried and Mark Ramsey were twelfth and thirteenth in the league race. These boys were consistent scorers for this year's team.

In the District XI race, Carasaquua finished seventh, the school's best finish thus far.

Scott Harford gives Mr. Heller a high five.

Three Miles To Victory!

Girls Cross Country Runs To Championship.

The 1979 girls cross country team coached by A. Heller finished the season with only one loss and tied for the Carolina League Championship. The girls ran every competition every meet, but in the end their hard work paid off as they won a place in the District meet. This impressive track qualified them for the state meet and just what they needed. The team worked through a very hard and hot summer and falls they earned fifteenth place.

Top runners for the year included Senior runner, Mary Jane Smith, who earned fourth place at leagues. Junior Pam Bowen, who earned the most points for the team, and Sophomore Cora Slutter.

Next year the team hopes to repeat their season performance by successfully defending their Carolina League title. Returning runners, Pam Bowen and Cora Slutter. Sophomore Debbie Washburn, who sustained an injury in the midst of this year's competition.

The future indeed looks bright for the Female Cross Country Roughies!

Field Hockey Does It Again

Last year the girls won the Colonial League the hands down. Before the season started this year, the girls knew that everyone would be out to defeat them.

When practice started in August there was one big question in Coach Phyllis Miller's mind. Could the Roughies do it again? No one was sure except for the girls who set out to prove they were number one. They immediately proved everyone by winning eight straight games until they suffered a heartbreaking 10-1 loss to South Valley. This loss seemed to inspire the girls as they went on to win their final seven games of the regular season. They finished with an impressive 15-1 record, good enough to be Colonial League Champions and earn a spot in the district playoffs.

The girls ranked number one in the district and Ed Eason, the top forward, played 11. Unfortunately, they were defeated 2-1 by Easton in the district final. The team was handed a 2-1 loss during regulation time on an Eason penalty stroke.

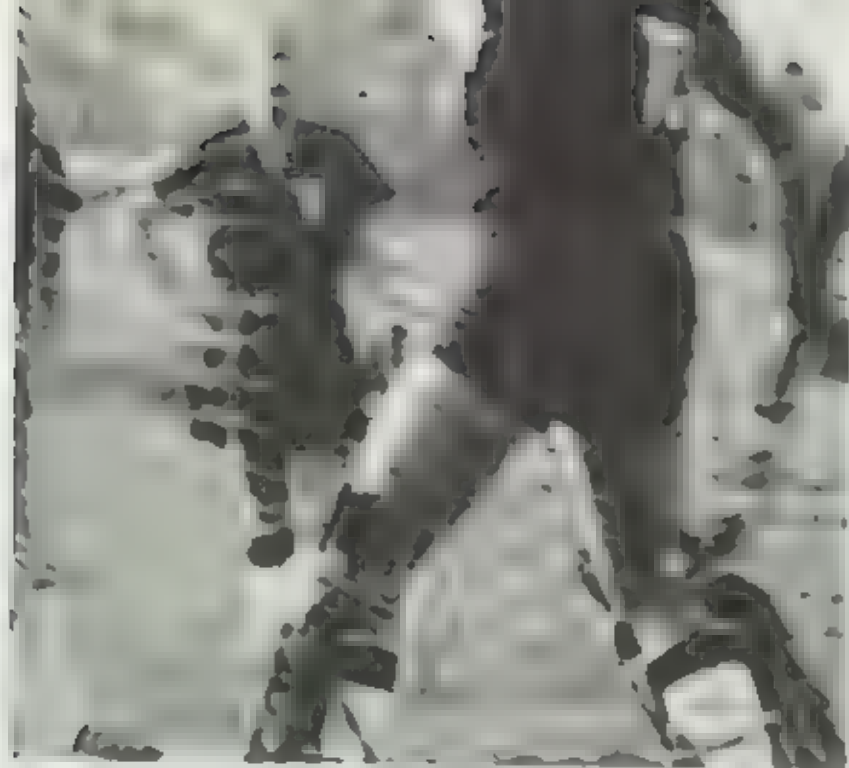

Although the season ended in disappointment, the girls rose the team was deserved Colonial League champions anyway. The girls worked hard all year to achieve the goals they had set from the start. The team should be commended for outstanding performances exhibited through the entire season.

One Goal To Score!

The jayvee field hockey team had a successful season boasting an impressive 7 2 4 record. The team, which started practicing in August, was optimistic at the beginning of practices, but as the season progressed they became more confident of their playing skills. Coach Haines attributed the girls' success to hard work and determination.

The girls produced an excellent defense which was led by Goalie Jan Manley, who, through the duration of the year, gave up only four goals. On the offensive side of things, the jayvees were overpowering, scoring 11 goals. The girls racked up six shutouts, but the highlight of the season was a hard fought 3-2 victory over an impressive Bangor team.

The winning tradition of our girls field hockey team will be kept alive in the future by the enthusiasm and determination of the upcoming underclassmen.

Golf Team Swings Into Action

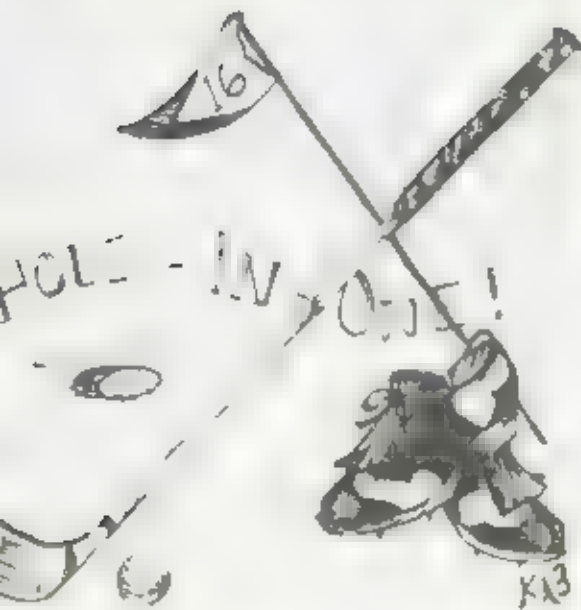

The Corasauqua Rough Rider Golf team may not have had their best season ever, but at least they had fun playing golf all season long and got the chance to compete against other teams. Although they had an up and down season, they finished with a 59 overall record.

The team, which is young, is still improving. Of the five starting golfers this year, four of them will return. Joe Abright, Scott Anderson, Joe Harakai, Steve Edmunds, and Bob Miller will return. These players give the Rough Riders a light at the end of the long, dark tunnel to success.

The seniors on this year's team were Alan Heckman, who had a decent year overall, finishing second at the League Meet in his flight, and Brad Hayman, who came to the team during the season, helping the team win several non-league matches. Due to the dedication of these players that will be back next year, Corasauqua Golf has a good outlook for the future.

One Putt To Sink!

The Team That Never Quit

The Varsity basketball team started the season off slowly, but showed steady improvement as the season progressed, and finished with a 10-13 record. Since most of the players were on the football team the squad had only three days to practice as a team before the first game. In this game, the Roughies lost a hard fought battle to Palmerton, who later went on to win the District XI Championship. Coach John Tominosky, along with Dan Tannous, kept the team's morale up through their slow start, and then with victories over Salisbury, Stanngton, and East Stroudsburg, the Roughies proved to the rest of the Colonial League that they were not to be taken lightly.

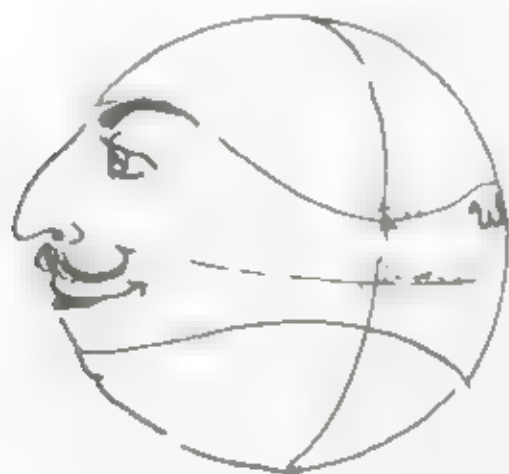

This year's basketball team which was noted for its aggressive and physical style of play, was never out rebounded by any opponent even though most of them were physically bigger. The Rough Riders were led by seniors Mick Firestone, "Smiley" Sell, team captain Jim Schaffer, and All Colonial League Honorable Mentions, Glenn Shipe and Carl Horn. Horn was also a McDonald's All-Star nominee. Next year looks bright as Bob Plara, Frank Troxell and Mark Heffner are joined by an impressive JV team.

Jayvees Do It Better

The Carasauqua JV Basketball team tied for the Colonial JV Championship with a 19-4 record. This squad, which lacked in height, used intelligence, poise and teamwork to defeat opponents who appeared to have more talent than them. Under the direction of Coach Charles Post, the Roughies pulled out many exciting victories. The most thrilling win was a 51-50 upset over Dieruff.

The Rough Riders played a very disciplined game in order to beat the Huskies, who were thought by some to be one of the best JV teams in the area. In spite of the excellent record sported by the Roughies, they showed great improvement as the season progressed. They used a strong finish at the end of their season to tie for the League Championship with Soucon Valley and Salisbury.

One Season To Remember!

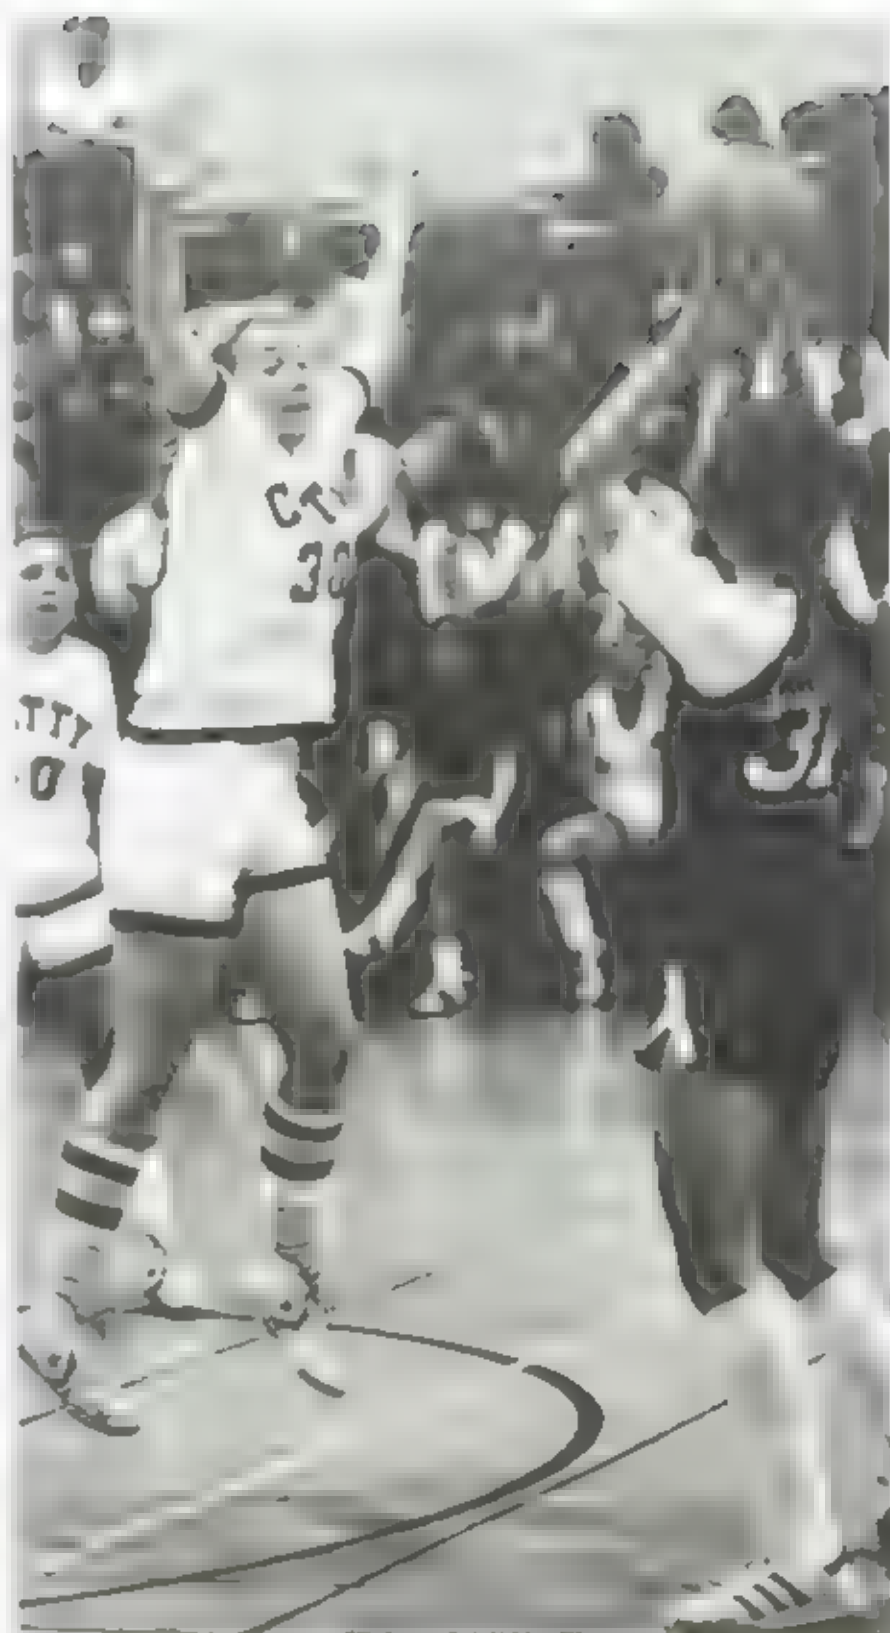

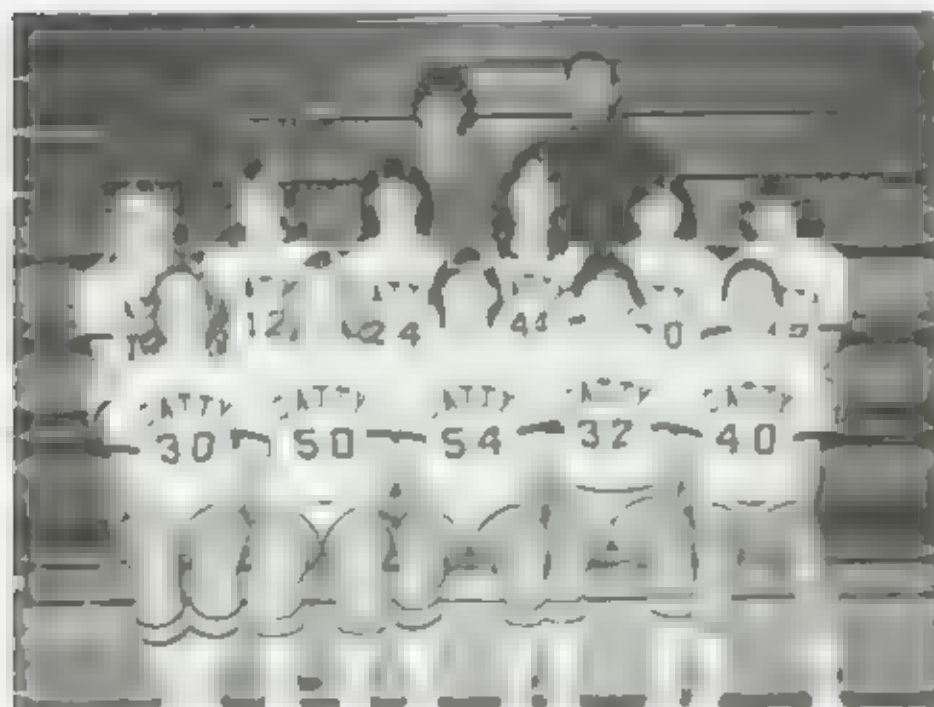

The Team With Determination

The girls' basketball team ended the year disappointed as they fell a few points short of making the District X playoffs. They did, however, finish their season with an impressive 14-8 record.

Throughout the season, there was a balanced team effort under the leadership of co-captains Judy Bowen and Sue Miller. As a result of their team efforts, they scored a commanding 1,155 points on offense and held their opponents to 1,108 points with their stingy defense.

There were two exciting victories when the girls just got by Pen Argyl 41-39 and nipped Saucon Valley 42-41. The highlight of their season was a winning streak of 9 out of 10 games.

The girls, who were guided by veteran Coach Will Perfly, weren't expected to do well this year due to a lack of height. But, they came on strong when Perfly opened up his playbook to prove you don't need height to win.

After a hard fight, the girls' basketball team won a close game against Pen Argyl.

One Jump Shot To Success!

Building For The Future

The girls' JV basketball team, which was coached by Chris Thomas, had a good year, ending with a solid 15-7 overall record. The team, which really had no one star always played as a unit and were constantly switching starters as the season progressed. The girls worked hard from the time practices started and it paid off as they won their first five games only to have the streak ended in a heartbreaking 44-47 loss to Bangor. The highlight of the girls' season was an exciting one point victory over Palisades 37-36. The girls managed to pull out another one point squeaker against Nazareth 27-26.

The girls' teamwork paid off as their potent offense racked up 870 overall points while their stalwart defense allowed only 722 points. Due to the dedication and hard work of these girls, Carasauqua Girls' Basketball has a bright outlook for the future.

Jayvees Prove They Can Do It Too

The Carasauqua JV wrestling squad jumped out to a quick 4-0 start on the way to a shining 15-3 record and a second place finish in the Colonial League.

After two disappointing losses to Nazareth and Northampton, the Roughies recovered to win 11 out of their last 12 matches. They started out on the right note with a 66-0 trouncing of Pleasant Valley and on the way through the season posted impressive victories over Brandywine 58-10, Lower Merion 57-9, Pius X 50-14, Solers 48-9, and a stunning 47-0 victory over the Eagles. Putting the king on a sparkling season, the Roughies posted a hard fought victory over Wilson and soundly defeated Coopers town 35-19.

Darry Lovelace, who went undefeated 18-0, was backed by teammates Bill Wirtman, Mike Ladick, and Carr Lauderfer, who all had 17-1 records. Ed Bruchak, 16-11, also added his effort along with Tim Cunningham, 15-3, who was also a Colonial League Tournament runner up.

Coach Villani led his young men to a 7-1 league record and an 8-2 overall record. It will be a tough record for next year's team to beat.

A Team With Guts

After a slow 3-5 start, and fourth place in the Colonial League, the Roughie wrestlers turned it around and posted an impressive 6-4 non-league record, including a season opening 52-9 rout of Pleasant Valley, a 35-16 upset of previously unbeaten Plus X and a powerhouse victory over Panther Valley, 51-9.

Senior co-captain Bill Drez led the mighty Rough Rider marmen to an admirable 9-9 overall win-loss record for the 79-80 wrestling season. The individual efforts of Drez overshadowed the team showing as he captured first place in the 167-pound weight class in the Colonial League. Carasauqua also landed some other finishers in the League tournament. They were heavyweight Keith Loudenslager, 94-pounder Tim Cunningham, and 129-pounder Chris Gerhard, who all grabbed the second place spot in their weight classes.

In addition to the capture of first place by Drez and the second place finishes of Loudenslager, Cunningham, and Gerhard, the team took fourth place in the Colonial League Tournament with the help of these wrestlers and a little extra support from the fourth place finishes of Joe Lovelace, Frank Schioffer, Barry Lovelace, and Cori Lansenderfer.

Keeping his eyes on a possible berth in the state tournament, Bill Drez added a first place District finish and a second place in the Northeast Regionals to his gold medal for the Colonial League journey. All of his hard work and help from Coach Jim Angeine paid off as he qualified for the state meet. On the trek to Hershey for the state tournament, he amassed a record of 26-4 with 18 pins along the way. His 18 pins placed him third in the Lehigh Valley in that category. However, his crowning achievement was being named the Most Outstanding Wrestler in the District XI Tournament.

Colonial League's Best!

This year's girls' track team swept through the league with a record of 8-0 as they copped their first Colonial League Championship. The girls, led by team captains Holly Walker and Marie Turney, showed great determination as they fought off a rush of injuries and still came out on top.

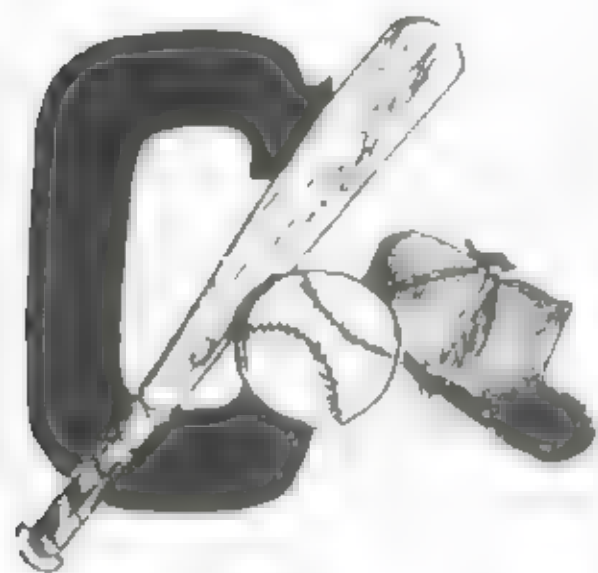

There were many individual champions on the 1980 track team, both in the Colonial League and District 11. Pam Bowen won both leagues and districts in the two mile and she was also a member of the 3200 meter relay team. Joining her on this League Championship relay team were Marie Turney, Rose Det, and Marianne Loch. The 400 meter relay team composed of Holly Walker, Lorianne Loch, Karen Chromiak, and Marie Turney took first place at the District 11 track meet, while Nancy Shipe copped second in the javelin.

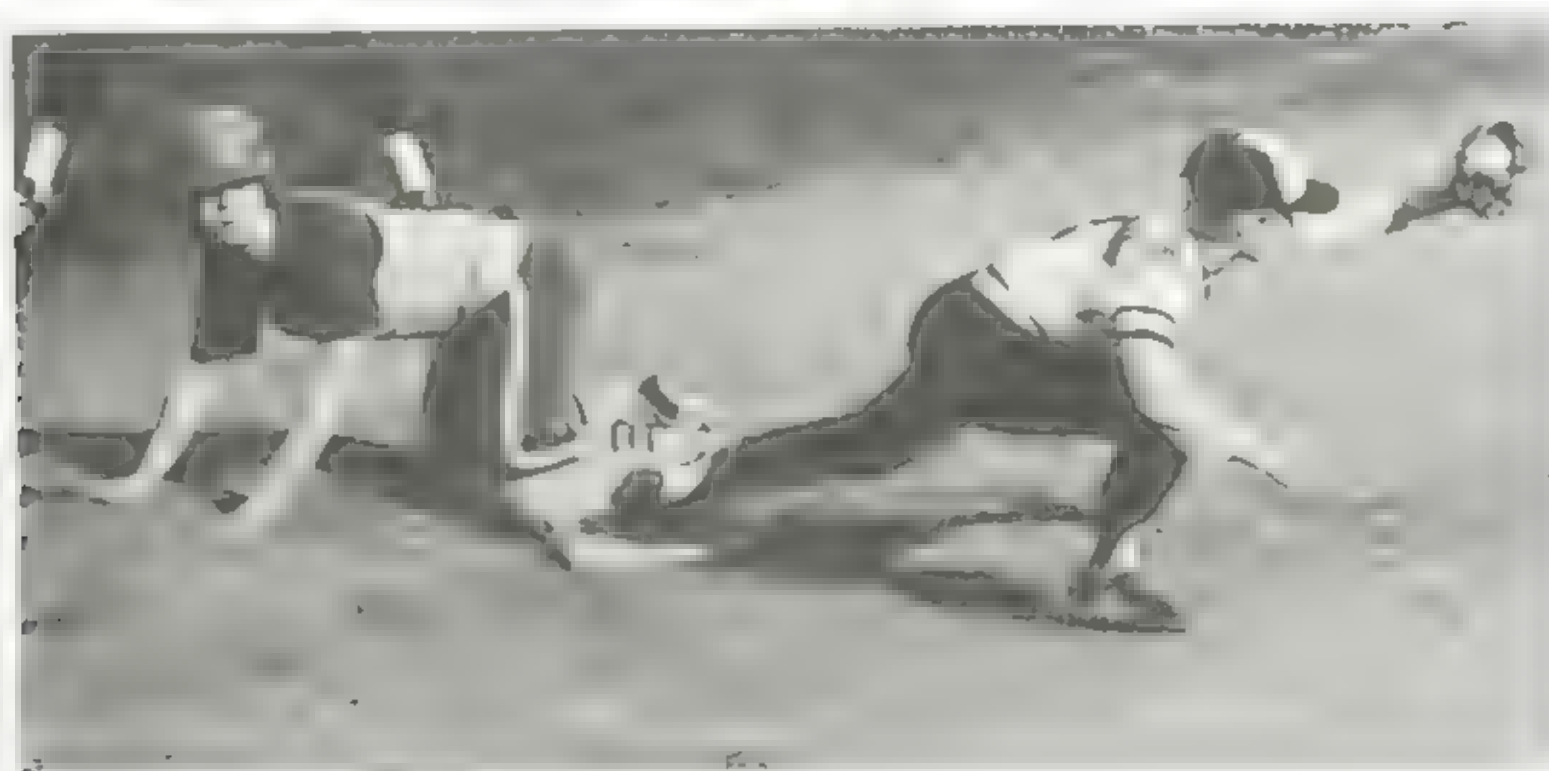

Even though there are many senior girls who will be missed next year, a fine group of underclassmen will provide plenty of excitement for years to come.

An Amazing Season!

The softball team had an amazing season with an overall league record of 15-3 which carried them as far as the District 11 semi-finals. You ask why it's amazing? Well, you may think that some of the reasons are that the girls displayed a stalwart defense and an easily ignited offense, which exploded when the going got rough. But the real reason was that all 22 girls worked together like a well-oiled machine that is constantly striving to do better. At the games, the girls seemed to be able to relax easily as Sharon Hucaluk provided a variety of sideline antics.

Although the season held many highlights for the fans, the most memorable moment was a no-hitter by Jill Millhouse against Wilson. Another highlight which proved to be memorable for Coach Mondschein (Miss Thomas) was the fact that the Roughies placed six girls on the Colonial League All Star Team. Next year looks like it will be a rebuilding year for the Roughies, but this does not mean they can be taken lightly in next year's Colonial League chase.

Roughies Show Their Stuff In Clinch

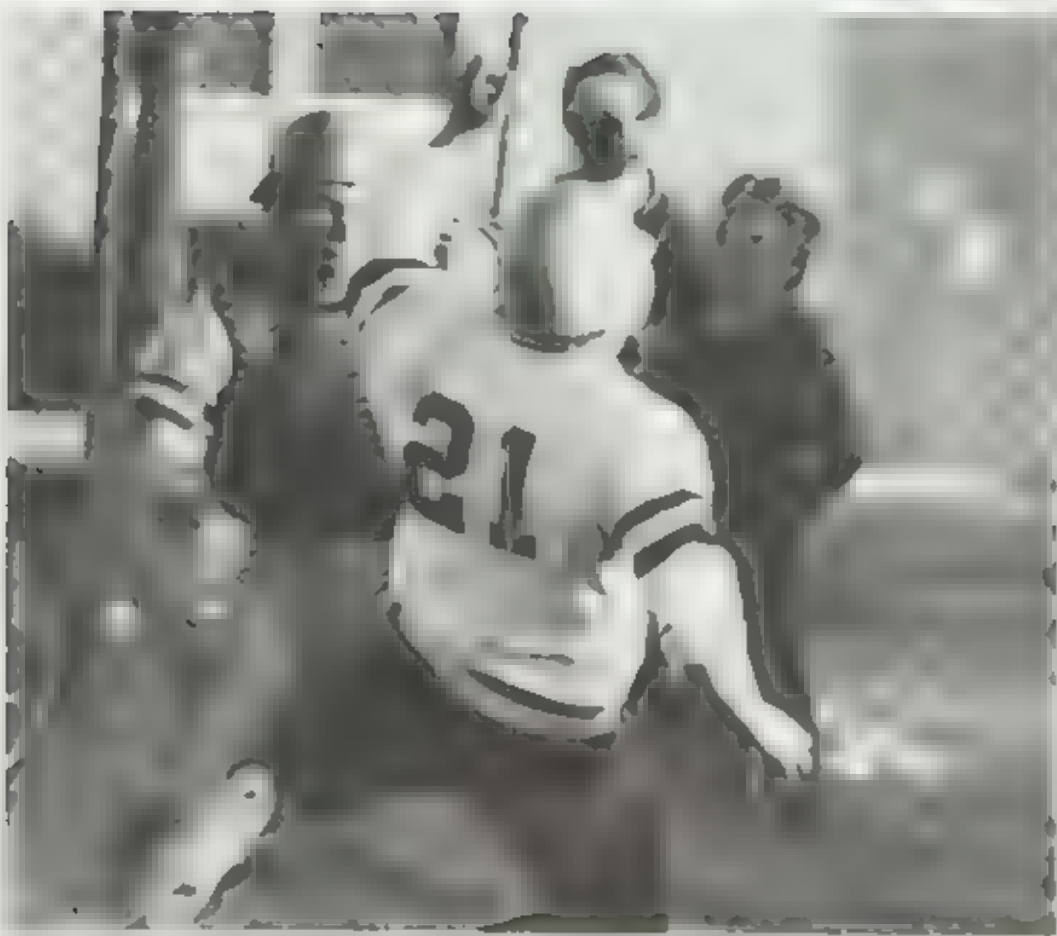

This year the Varsity baseball team started out with high hopes and lots of enthusiasm. Even though the Rough Riders lost their first two games, their hopes were still high and they couldn't wait to play their league. The first half of the season the Roughies struggled to a 3 and 5 record.

When the second half of play opened, the Roughies were ready to play good baseball. They started it off by rebounding their earlier loss to Southern Lehigh and outscored them by a score of 9-6. The Rough Riders' string of wins followed their controversial loss to Salisbury. The Roughies came out of the game with a 2-3 record, but they were still in contention for the playoff hopes with a 9-5 record over their rivals. The Roughies went on to gain a 5-2 victory over Wilson and an 8-0 win over Salisbury. Highlighting this season was a grand slam by the Roughies as they hit a total of ten home runs. The first was by Bill Lower, two by Carl Hori and Scott Nace, one by Kevin Hutterer, and two unheard of grand slams by Mick Firestone.

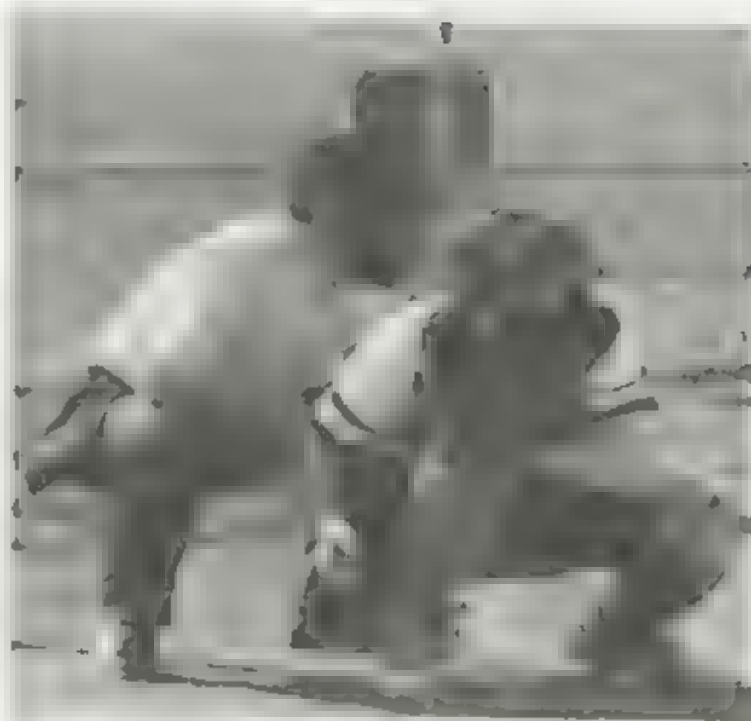

Rough Rider baseball has a good deal of junior lettermen returning and a solid team coming up.

As the 1979-1980 sports season comes to an end, all the different sports begin packing away their equipment for the summer. Some of the underclassmen are looking forward to next year. But the seniors are looking back for Catasauqua High School.

A senior basketball player, [Name], says that the senior may think that the senior year is the best year. But he has experienced the senior year and knows that it is not. He says that the senior year is a time of growth and change. He says that the senior year is a time of learning and experience. He says that the senior year is a time of challenge and opportunity. He says that the senior year is a time of achievement and success.

But even though the senior year is a time of growth and change, it is also a time of loss. He says that the senior year is a time of saying goodbye to friends and teachers. He says that the senior year is a time of leaving behind the familiar and the comfortable. He says that the senior year is a time of stepping out into the unknown. He says that the senior year is a time of taking risks and making mistakes. He says that the senior year is a time of learning from those mistakes and growing from them.

Rough Rider

This year, under the direction of Mr. Richard Mine, the Rough Rider Marching Unit strutted its way through another successful season. After competing in several local competitions, the band went to Vereron's Stadium and placed very high in the National Championship. They received the first place trophy at Whitehall High School in the Chapter II Championship.

Early in the school year, the music department decided to take a trip to Toronto, Canada, in spring. Eagerly, the members went to work selling pretzels, circus fruit raffle tickets, and the ever famous band hoagies, in order to raise sufficient funds.

As the memories of this year's marching unit flashed by, one remembered . . . butt-flops in the mud . . . bandcamp . . . "Birth of the Blues" . . . getting seazy practices in the dark.

The Sounds

And the students...

Making The

1980 was a year for beginnings. Mr. Richard Milne once again started a chorus, which consisted of 14 female parts, and performed at the Christmas concert and the Spring Concert.

Also started for the first time at Carasauqua was the Stage Band. Better known as Jazz Band, this group of about twenty trumpeters, trombones, saxes, and rhythm got together Tuesday nights for long hours of practice on music that seemed impossible to play. They worked hard for their fine performance at the Spring Concert and also in Toronto, Canada, over the May 17th weekend.

Directed by Mr. Milne, the 48 instrumentalists of Concert Band practiced three days a week after school in the band room. It all proved worthwhile in the end when the Christmas Concert, with the Middle School Band, and Spring Concert, were such smashing successes. This group also performed in the competition in Toronto, Canada.

Of Music!

Music Together

The 23rd Annual Lehigh County Band Festival was held at Whitehall High School. Twelve students from Carasouqua performed with students from other area schools. Mr. Milne led the musicians through one of the pieces. Other schools participating were Strington, Southern Lehigh, Salisbury, Parkland, Whitehall, Emmaus, and Northwestern Lehigh. Over the course of the 1979-1980 school year, the Chorus, Jazz Band, Concert Band, and Country Band made great music together.

Among several student council sponsored dances, the favorite seemed to be the Halloween dance. Everyone who attended was dressed in a costume of some type. Prizes were given for the best costumes in different categories.

At Christmas there was the Variety Show which featured many off Broadway performances. An added specialty was the Senior's rendition of the Nutcracker Suite which was renamed after their performance as the Nutcracker Sour. As the assembly drew to an end, everyone joined in singing Christmas carols.

In Nine Short Months

The Community Interest Committee decided to adopt two children from Haiti. This includes sending money to help pay for their meals and clothing. Pictures of these children were posted on the bulletin board. Three students were selected at the end of last year to represent Catasauqua's student council at the Student Forum meetings the first Thursday of every month. Each month the meeting was held in a different school. They participated in discussion groups, shared their ideas, and worked together to solve some of the problems that arise in school functions. Through these meetings, our representatives were able to bring back suggestions to help make our student council run more smoothly and be of more service to the student body.

It all started last summer at Lehigh University. Everyone was up and doing calisthenics by six o'clock sharp. After a series of jumping jacks, a few deep knee bends, and a quick lap around the track the girls were ready to begin their daily routine of yelling, clapping, and stamping their feet. Now you may ask yourself, "What kind of girls spend their summer vacation sweating and working out?" The Catasauqua High School cheerleaders, that's who! They spend hours in the summer sun practicing their new cheers so that by the time football season rolls around they are in tip-top shape. Girls from all over Pennsylvania participate in the weeklong activities at Lehigh's cheerleading camp. It gives the girls a chance to make new friends, share their ideas, and sharpen their old skills.

Finally, the new school year began and with it came the new football season. A pep rally was held in the school gym to get the team psyched up for their first game against Plus X. It was the cheerleaders' seasonal debut and as always they did a terrific job. The JV and the Varsity squads did cheers for their respective teams while the student body cheered along. Several senior girls participated in a skit which portrayed the events of the upcoming game as they expected them to be (with Carry the victor, of course!). This, however, was just one of the many performances given by the cheerleaders this year. After football season, they continued to cheer right on through basketball. Later in the year, the girls placed very high in several of the local cheering competitions. When the season did finally draw to a close, the exhausted but still smiling cheerleaders had a dinner at the Gourmet Inn to celebrate a successful season.

Gotta Pin For A Win!

There are many types of pins: safety pins, straight pins, fraternity pins, and bobby pins. But the pins these girls were concerned with were those made by the wrestlers in their matches. For the first time in the history of Corasauqua High School, there was a wrestling cheering squad.

In November, interested girls in grades eleven and twelve, met in the gym for practice. After a few days, tryouts were held and a squad of six was chosen to cheer on the Roughies. The squad consisted of three juniors and three seniors. At once, they began to get it together before their first match at Pleasant Valley High School in early December.

As the season went on the girls became more confident and improved a great deal. Everyone had a great time. Some of their fondest memories include . . . the bus rides . . . eating at halftime.

Service With A Smile

National Honor Society is a group of many individuals with one goal in mind, service and leadership. These students participate in different activities which aid others in their community. Some of the activities in which Honor Society members have participated in include helping at the library, reading to the blind, tutoring, and volunteering at local hospitals. No one gets paid to do these things the satisfaction comes with knowing that they have helped someone.

Also, this organization held a poster sale in order to raise money for some community groups in the Carasauqua area. The brightly colored posters with witty sayings were a big hit among the students as well as the teachers. In May, N.H.S. held an initiation ceremony in which they welcomed new members for the upcoming year.

Future Business Leaders

The Carasauqua High School Future Business Leaders of America proved that they were true leaders throughout the year. The elected 1980 officers were: President Karen Tognoli, Vice President Kathy Buchman, Treasurer Robin Miller, Secretary Karen Everett, Historian Joan Zimbar, Recorder Decky Reiss.

The chapter, advised by Ms. Logue and Mrs. Doyer, had a fine showing at the FBLA Regional Conference held at Salisbury High School on Wednesday, March 5.

The following girls were awarded trophies and certificates of placement in the business test competitions: First place Karen Tognoli - Miss FBLA, Missy Fedor - Shorthand II, Karen Everett - Business English, Sharon O'Mara and Lorianne Loch - Poster Contest.

At the next meeting, the editors were announced and immediately they began to decide on a theme. After several suggestions were considered, Days of Our Lives was decided upon. Next, the editors began to concern themselves with the length and basic layout of each section. There were pictures to be taken, articles to be written, captions to be created and pages to be submitted to the company for printing.

In addition to working on the book itself, the staff busied itself with planning fund raising dances. The Toga Dance held in December gave students a chance to display their Roman Costumes. Prizes were given for the best toga and also for the John Belushi look alike. It was a great evening for all who attended.

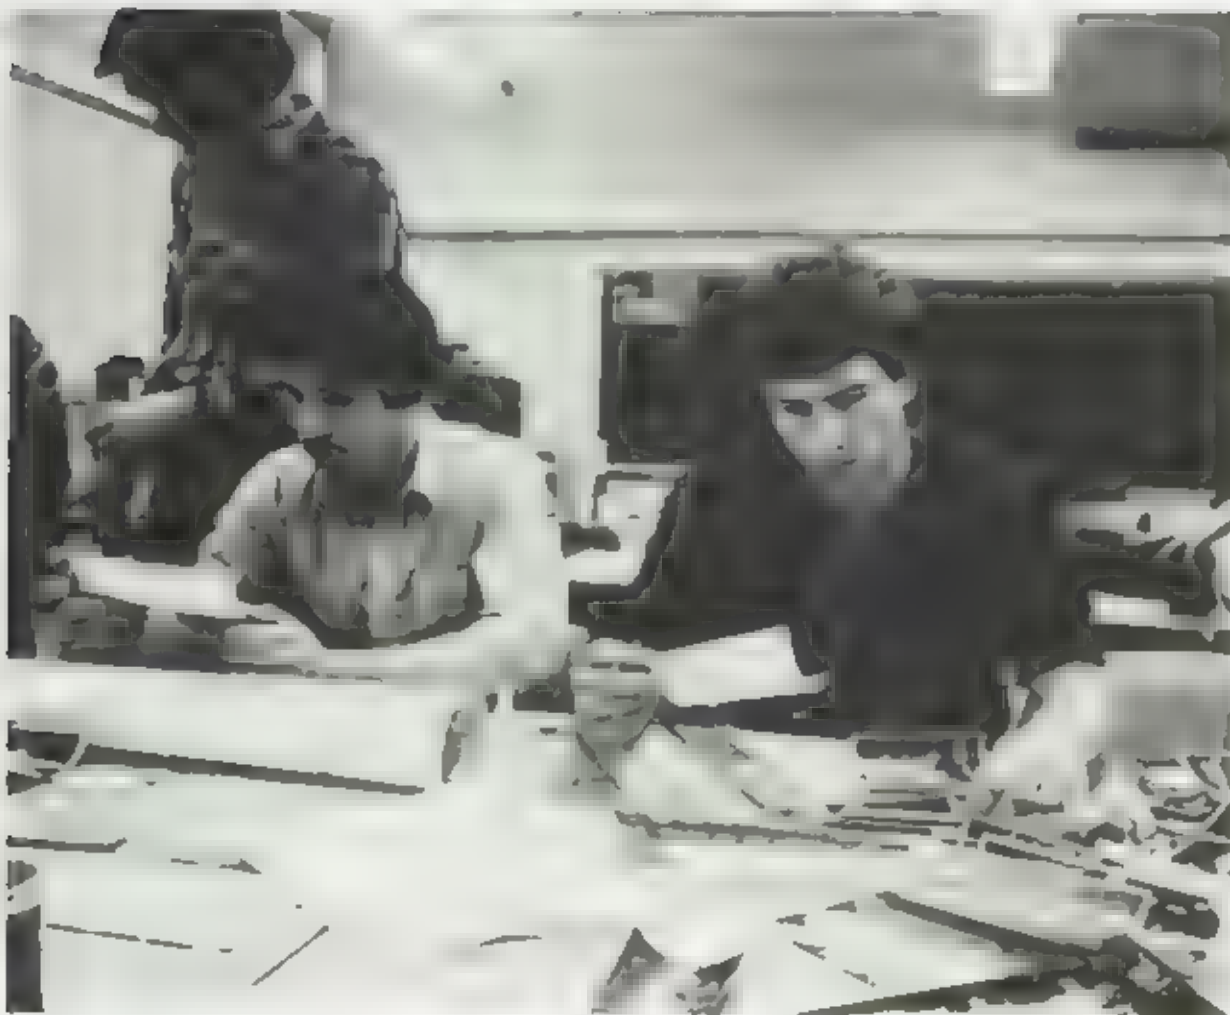

The second dance held by the yearbook staff was called Unite Night. Dancers dressed in clothing to represent their favorite styles of music. Costumes included everything from punk rock to country western.

This year's Drumbeat staff members proved to be a group of efficient hardworking kids, but along with their furious attempts to meet the deadlines they managed to have a lot of laughs and just plain old great times!

Gym Club Flips!

Flip, Flop And Away!

With bounding leaps, jumps, and vaults the gym club completed the 1979-80 school year with grace and ebullency. This year's club, under the leadership of advisor Miss Thomas, President Terri Schlener, Vice President Lorianne Loch, Secretary Missy Fedor, Treasurer Angie Litta, and Historian Mary Lukas, met on Wednesday nights for about an hour and a half. The club's activities began with warm-ups. Then the girls broke into various aspects of gymnastics including tumbling, uneven bars, balance beam, and the club's favorite, the mini-trampoline, culminating in a leap into the air.

All in all, the club's members and officers added up to an outstanding crew.

The first of the club's two productions was The Effect of Gamma Rays on the Man-in-the-Moon Mongoose, featuring the theatrical talents of Judy Dinan, Terri Schiener, Jill Schafer, and Katrina Bruchok.

For the year's second production Director Bob Fahringer decided to undertake a musical comedy in the form of Anthony Newley. The

Pros And Cons

The Debate Club terminated the 1979-80 school year with a final record of 19-29. The first of four tournaments was held at Whitehall High School where the team won 5 and lost 7 debates. There were other regular round tournaments at Stratton (3-9), Paimerton, (4-8) and Northwestern (7-5).

The team of Kathy Dale and Sue Strohl amassed an amazing 8 win zero loss record. The next best effort was registered by Katrina Bruchak and Pam Bowen with a 6-2 win/loss.

This year's debate finalists consisted of the year's top debaters. The members included Kathy Dale, Katrina Bruchak, Pam Bowen, and Sue Strohl. Despite their outstanding season record, the finalists were defeated in the early rounds of the semi-finals.

Think Alike!

The "Price" Is Right!

With the sight of the camera and the roar of the microphone, the Scholastic Scrimmage team began the 1979-80 school year with a buzz. Its membership, consisting of Cathy Corcoran, Karina Bruchak, Pam Bowen, and Joe Nicholas, started the season by passing a written test. Then, to prepare themselves for their first contest, they engaged in many challenging sessions of Jeopardy and Double Jeopardy. Their first bout was to be at WLVT TV Channel 39 in Allentown, where they met their opponents from Pen Argyl High School in a match of "quick recall and scholastic aptitude." Host Harry Price began the contest and the team started out well, but the match finally culminated with the narrow defeat of the Rough Riders.

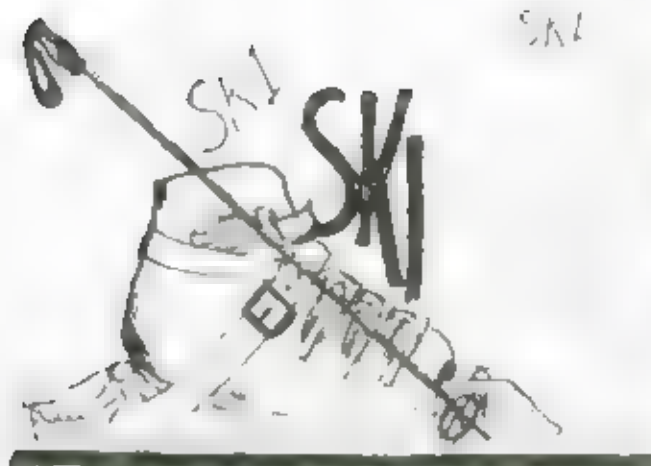

Let It Snow!

White slopes and warm lodges greeted the Carasauqua Ski Club this winter. Advisor Miss Logue and President John Harvey had their hands full as many enthusiastic skiers turned out to go skiing. Although the first trip was cancelled because of lack of snow, the next trip to Little Gap was very successful. The club then continued their season with three trips to Doe Mountain, two more to Little Gap, one to Hahn Mountain, and one to the big one Camelback. Overall, the year was a big success and all await the first snowfall next year.

Way To Go!

As the microphone blared their introduction, and the sound system biased to the tune of Channel 1 the 1979-80 Winterguard took the floor. This year's guard, under the leadership of captains Lisa Markowitz and Denise Brenkacs, and instructors Kathy Musser and Bob Musser, had one of its most impressive seasons. The guard placed first and second in many season competitions and culminated the year by placing first in the Chapter Six Tournament of Bands Championship and second in the Chapter Six National Judges Association Championship, both held at Smith Hall, Slatington. This year for the guard was characterized by such saying as "Have a Coke and a Smile", "Pepsi", and the "Big Burp".

A combination effort of both members and instructors made for a guard that was really tops.

The World

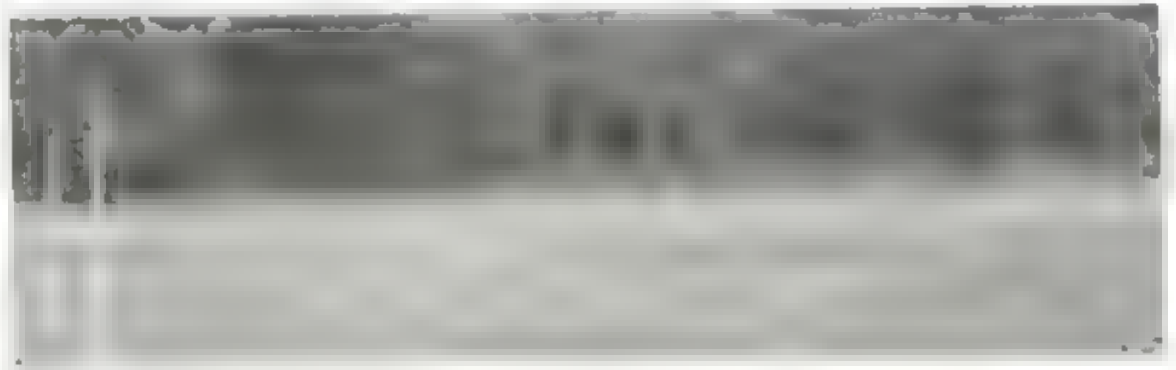

Hang In There!

After 2:45 each day and on weekends you can find Carry students in many varied places doing whatever it is they like to do best. Some people like to eat. These people can be found having a pizza at Angela's — a local pizzeria in Carry. Others like the more traditional American food of McDonald's — the Big Macs and the ever famous french fries.

Some students would rather spend money or just browse and for this there are no better places than the Lehigh Valley and Whitehall Malls. Other kids just like to cruise. Favorite places for this are the Northampton circuit, which runs through Main Street in Northampton, and the Allentown circuit, which runs down Hamilton Street.

Though all these things are fun, some people just like to hang out and for this there is no place better than the Carasauqua playground.

Catty Disappointed By Tie

The Homecoming festivities came to a climax as Carasauqua traveled to A. Erdosy Field to play Northampton in their traditional Thanksgiving Day rivalry. The Roughies were picked as underdogs but this didn't seem to get them down. After emotional speeches by Head Coach Ed Csencsics and trainer "Doc" Warmkessel, the Roughies started the game with a bang. Catty blockers sent the kids sprawling on the opening kickoff as Fred Hutterer eluded a Northampton defender and raced 75 yards for a quick touchdown.

The Kids got their only score at the end of the first quarter on a turnover which gave them the ball on the Catty 25 yard line. This deadlocked the score at 8-8, and the rest of the game was a fierce battle fought mostly in the trenches. The Roughies seemed to have the upper hand the remainder of the game but couldn't get the big play to score the winning touchdown. With the end of the game near, Catty battled desperately for the victory but was unable to get good field position as Northampton seemed content to settle for a tie.

The Envelope Please

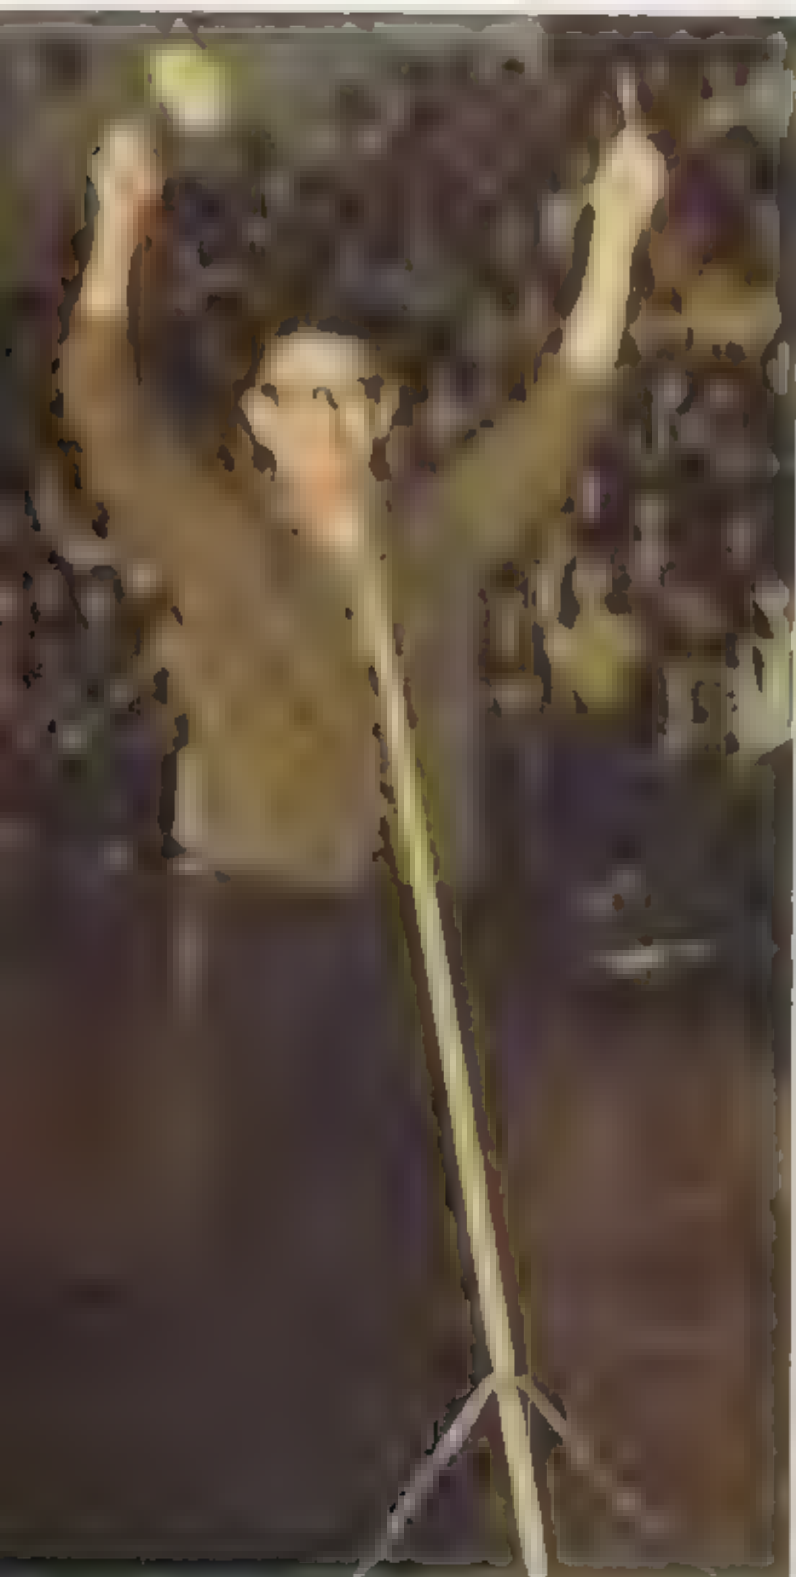

Nineteen seventy nine was the second year students decorated the halls to show their Carasouqua spirit. The seniors displayed their "Senior Hall of Fame", showing sketches of each senior football player and coach. Other decorations, by each of the classes, brightened the school and heightened team spirit.

Carry spirit was shown not only in the high school but also during the traditional Thanksgiving Pep Rally. Many contest results were announced during the rally. Al Shiminick won the Bonfire Baby Contest and Glenn Shipe was voted the King of the Legs. Students chose Missy Fedor as their Football Queen and her court included Laura Plata, Robin Miller, Angie Litta, and Shannon Boyle. Last year's queen, Ellen Firestone, presented Missy with the traditional crown.

Speakers for the pep rally included John Yanelek, president of Student Council, who emceed the program; Vince Rogusky, an alumni of Carasouqua who talked about school spirit and a sense of pride, and Ron Hassler, a teacher at Lincoln Middle School, who spoke about winning and losing with class and style.

The night before the game each class performed skits designed to show their spirit as a prelude to the Bonfire. The skit performed by the Junior Class won for their fine impersonations of the football players and coaches.

All of these spirited events during Homecoming week proved to the team that the school was behind them one hundred percent.

Al must have been a beautiful baby!

Enjoying Our World

From Roman Sandals To Disco Roller Skates

The yearbook staff started the new year with original ideas, a new advisor, and an old problem. Their treasury was not large enough to cover the publishing expenses for the 1980 Brunalbo. Immediately, the editors put their heads together to think of fund raising activities. After considering several alternatives, all agreed on a Toga Dance. The planning began. There were posters to be hung, announcements to be made, and disc jockeys to be signed. Everyone went to work and on the night of December 15, 1979, flocks of "Romans" poured into the high school gymnasium to boogie the night away with the LCCC disc jockeys. All sorts of unique togas adorned with wreaths, jewels, and sandals were on display. Some were long, others were short. They ranged from white to solid colors, flowers to stripes. One of the highlights of the evening was the judging of the best toga — worn by senior Jeffy Charvaia — and the "John Delushi" look alike — Mike Lansenderfer.

Although the dance was a huge success, the funds were still insufficient. Once again the staff had to come up with another idea. Because the first dance was such a big hit, they decided to hold another one in mid-January.

The dance, entitled Unite Night, was a tribute to the various types of music across the country. Students came dressed in a costume representative of their favorite musical style. When the doors opened at eight o'clock, representatives of country, western, rock and roll, Hawaiian, disco, punk, soul, and even classical music, crowded the dance floor. For a special treat, everyone gathered around to watch Miss Falco and her dance partner, Nick White, do a disco routine. Unite Night brought out the best in many Carasouqua students.

Although Carasauqua High School is among the smallest schools in the valley, various courses are offered. Because the classes are relatively small, teachers are able to give the students individual attention.

The English classes had the privilege of attending many theatrical productions at the Rodale Theatre in Allentown including Dracula and The Glass Menagerie. Mr. Rothrock took several students to see Peter Pan starring Sandy Duncan on Broadway. Current Issues traveled to Allentown to visit the courthouse and witnessed judicial procedures. Mrs. Hartman and her Spanish speaking friends viewed the famous "Flamenco Dancers" perform in Allentown. While studying hematology, the advanced biology classes toured the Miller Blood Bank.

Some of our students attend the Lehigh County Vo-Tech school where they learn trades such as welding, auto-mechanics, and interior design.

No matter what field they choose, the students of Carasauqua High School continue to excel.

Dreaming Of Our World

A World Of Romance

As the recent Billy Joel hit goes, "Everybody Has a Dream." And the dreams of many were fulfilled on the evening of May 3, 1980, as they floated across the dance floor at the Junior Senior Prom. It was an enchanted affair where everyone looked great, felt terrific, and had a fabulous time. The famous T-shirts and jeans seen around school were replaced by glamorous gowns and tuxedos. To add to this elegance, every girl had either a nosegay or corsage arrangement of bright spring flowers. No one could help but smile joyfully in this Cinderella atmosphere!

The success of the prom can be attributed to the hard work and careful planning on the part of the junior class. Cutting out hundreds of foil stars and streamers was no picnic, but their devotion paid off. Among the decorations was a garden and a silhouetted mural which provided the scenery for many pictures. Refreshments consisted of finger sandwiches, miniature cupcakes, fresh fruit, and punch.

Keeping with tradition at Carry High, most of the couples dined at a special restaurant after the prom. A popular place to eat was the 1760 House in Trexlertown. Following a scrumptious meal, about twenty couples went home to change into dungarees and sweatshirts and met at the Blue Ridge Ranch for a 3 A.M. hayride. The moonlight and 68° temperature added a romantic glow to the event. Others who had not attended the hayride chose activities such as bowling or going for a quiet ride to watch the morning sunrise. A few brave couples that were not totally exhausted from the evening's excitement went out for breakfast, but the majority went home to get some sleep. No matter what path they decided to take that night, most will agree that they will always have the memories of this year's prom tucked away in their hearts.

Seniors Splashdown At Picnic!

As the first hamburger was dropped onto the grill and the first stream of birch beer spewed from its keg, the Senior picnic of the Class of 1980, held at Camp Friendship in the Lehigh Parkway, commenced. The grills, manned by Miss Partel and many hungry assistants, delivered a never ending flow of hot charcoaled burgers, broiled to perfection, into the mouths of anxious seniors. Advisor Pat Callahan and chaperones Mrs. Callahan, Mr. Milne, and Mr. Miller, stood guard over the other food and two large cakes while Seniors enjoyed the sunshine while throwing softball, catching frisbee, and engaging in squirt gun battles. The cool stream grew tempting to some as a few brave seniors found courage to enter its waters. In a large innertube, Shannon Boyle and Alan Heckman floated placidly downstream while Katrina Bruchak went for an involuntary swim.

All in all, the Senior picnic was enjoyed and will be remembered always.

Bacculaureate Warms Chilled Graduates

Reverend Robert Crall of the Presbyterian Church of Corasaqua and Reverend Eric Shafer of the Holy Trinity Memorial Lutheran Church presided over the bacculaureate service this year. Reverend Crall performed the invocation and benediction and gave a beautiful prayer for the graduating class while Reverend Shafer gave a most eloquent sermon. Leading the senior class for the bacculaureate ceremony were junior honor students Pam Dowen and Scott Metzger. The ushers at bacculaureate were members of the National Honor Society. Organists performing were Jill Schafer and LeeAnn Oranczak. It was a beautiful, if chilly, outdoor ceremony that left all participants with a great sense of joy.

First Class Of Decade Bids Farewell

On June 9, 1980, the 145 members of the senior class looked to the rainy skies in dismay. And although the commencement exercises would have to be held indoors, not one person was less eager to graduate.

Soon the familiar Pomp and Circumstance sounded and the seniors, in caps and gowns, rather than the usual jeans and t-shirts, piled into the auditorium. Hundreds of smiles appeared on the faces of the proud parents and friends who filled the auditorium.

Reverend Eric C. Shafer led the ceremony by giving the invocation. Then senior class president, James Schaffer, introduced the first two speakers, Judith Dinan and Charles Housel, who gave the welcome and spoke of the past respectively. Angela Litta, historian, honored the Class of 1930 who came to share in the joy of this event.

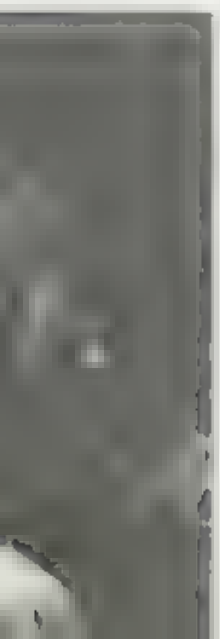

After receiving her diploma, class secretary Melissa Fedor proceeded to read the names of the other graduates. When the diplomas were distributed, James Schaffer led the members of the class as they turned the tassels on their caps.

Two class gifts, a large painting and a check to Muscular Dystrophy were presented by treasurer Laura Plata. Vice president Alan Heckman then introduced the remaining student speakers. Valedictorian Theresa Schlener spoke of the future and the challenges it would hold, and salutatorian Katrina Bruchak bid a farewell to Carasaugua High School.

With tears in eyes and diplomas in hand, the Class of 1980 joined Karen Tognoli in singing the Alma Mater while reminiscing about a grand yesterday, but looking toward an even better tomorrow.

Jubliant Juniors

This year's junior class, led by advisor Mr. Charles Post and President John Harvey, is looking forward to the end of another very successful year. Supporting these capable leaders are Vice President, Lor James, Secretary, Los Adams, Historian Jane Schubert, and Treasurer, Crystale Long.

The year started with a cookie sale in which hundreds of boxes and cans of cookies in the form of Cookie Poppers, the Garden Assortment, and the Mambo Tir were sold. This was followed by the Psyche-Up dance in mid-November. To keep warm this winter, the juniors welcomed the task of selling refreshments at home J.V. and Varsity Boy's Basketball games. The culmination of the year was the prom, the theme of which was "Everybody Has a Dream."

Juniors First

This year's junior class has been more than just average because of the class as a whole and because of a special few

John Yanek, a junior, was the president of the Student Council. For the first time in the history of Carasauqua High, a junior had been elected to this prominent position

Colleen Wilson and Robert Pierce will be the first students to begin college directly from their junior years. Colleen will attend Wesleyan College in Allentown, and Bob plans to attend either Lehigh or Drexel University

Carl Erie is also an outstanding junior, being one of Carasauqua's few junior quarterbacks and being named to the Second Team of the Colonial League All Stars

These individuals have been unique in their achievements and this will be a class long remembered

The Good, The Great And The Outstanding

At all schools there seems to be a few special students who stand out high above all others. Our school is no exception

From a musical aspect there is Glenn "Stoog" Longenhagen. Glenn, a born musician, has been playing the drums since age five, the piano since age nine, and the guitar since age twelve, all self-taught. His musical talent all seems to be inherited from his father, who played the sax and other instruments with Benny Goodman and his Orchestra.

From the "Wide World of Sports" there comes Lori James. Lori's special talent, although she participates in field hockey and basketball, seems to be in track. She holds the school record in track events such as the 440 relay, 220 dash, and both the triple and long jump. In both her sophomore and freshman years, Lori earned the privilege of participating in the State Track Meet. During her first year she earned the state championship in the triple jump and placed second in the long jump. In the former, she now holds the state record of 39 feet, 3 inches. During her second state meet, she placed third in both the long and triple jumps.

From the theatrical position there is Lori Skripek. Lori is quite active in school and local theater. Starting at the age of eight, Lori appeared in many children's productions including Punch and Judy and You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. After her first taste of the "limelight", Lori entered higher realms of theatre, such as Fiddler on the Roof, Oliver, and Bus Stop. She is currently taking vocal and dance lessons and hopes to enter a career which will include theater.

Super Sophs

For every Sophomore Class the year begins with the choosing of an advisor and officers. This year's Sophomore Class was no exception. Mr. James Angeline was chosen to fill the position of advisor for the Class of 1982. The class then elected officers for the 1979-80 school term. The new team, headed by President Ryan Rogusky, would be responsible for money making and school related projects. Vice President Jeff Miller, Secretary Robyn Harvey, Treasurer Debbie Washburn, and Historian Ann Hutterer initiated their first project during the Thanksgiving festivities with the organization of a successful skit and hall decoration. Their fund raising endeavors proved quite profitable. Projects included: Crystal Erchings, the Valentine's Dance, and a candy sale. The class looks for more success in the future.

The Strong And The Wrestling

Like all other classes, the Sophomores have their special members who stand out in their respective categories. Ryan Rogusky, the class president, is an outstanding football player and has "sured up" for the Varsity team line-up for a few games. Ryan is also a valuable member of the Rough Rider Track Team; his excellence is shown in weight events, such as shotput and discus.

In the Wrestling department the sophomores also have their extra special members. Chris Gerhard, the teams 135 pound member, placed 2nd in the Colonial League Tournament, quite an accomplishment for an underclassman. Another sophomore member is Joe Lovelace, the teams 142 pounder. Although he was defeated in the second round of the District Wrestling-Offs, Joe accumulated a 12-0 win-loss record during the regular season and placed 4th in the Colonial League Tournament.

The Winners And The Achievers

The "Class of 1982" is backed by a great number of female standouts. Supporting the Rough Riders is Michele Heffner. This 5'1" Sophomore has seen Varsity line-up action in both her Freshman and Sophomore years and was a key player in the 1979-80 season, earning her letter. Despite her size, Michele (Known to friends as "Twink") is on all around athlete.

In the course of Cross Country, sophomores Cara Slutter, Debbie Washburn and Lori Schadler have been great assets to the team, lettering in both their freshmen and sophomore years.

Another sophomore credit is Robyn Harvey. Robyn, an excellent gymnast, was the only sophomore member of the 1979-80 Varsity Cheerleading Squad. Although not the first sophomore on the Varsity Squad, she was certainly one of the best.

With the sounding of the bell to mark the opening of the 1979-80 school year and the commencement of their high school careers, Freshmen stormed the halls with excitement and apprehension. Each was armed with a newly attained tablet, pencil (bearing the school name), and an incomprehensible schedule, the latter containing in its right hand corner a lone number followed by a sequence of three numbers . . . the dreaded locker combination, a pet peeve of all new comers.

Throughout the day, these high school neophytes suffered many symptoms of "First Day-itis". Stiffness of the neck caused by curiosity of the new surroundings and searching for room numbers. Soreness of the feet constricted by stiff new shoes bought solely for the first day occasion. And last, confusion of the head stemming from trepidations such as "Will anyone notice the hole in my sock?" and "Does Mr. Callahan really bite?"

With great enthusiasm, the "Class of 1983" looks forward to a successful future in the "Little red schoolhouse on the hill."

Is There Life After Middle School?

When making the leap to the high school from the middle school, freshmen find many dissimilarities from previous years.

Privileges forbidden at Lincoln are commonplace happenings of high school life. Such privileges include legalized gum chewing. When entering the cafeteria, many surprises await. For a few cents extra, one can purchase chocolate milk, ice cream, and extra food. Two lines operate for faster food service and assigned seats are unheard of. Last period activity sessions are no more and students with 8th period study hall are permitted to leave the building. The climb to the high school is one of new encounters, bringing the new freshmen class another year closer to graduation.

A Freshman Is . . .

Climbing the big hill for the first time
 Wondering what high school's like
 Wandering through the long lonely halls
 Ending up in the wrong room
 The old, patched varsity uniforms
 Seats in the front of the bus
 Deciding on a class advisor
 Planning future fund raisers
 The basketball team 19-0
 The football team 7-0-1
 Never having to share your locker
 The beginning of the end

Look, up in the sky. It's a "Byrd"

Right "Herr" raising freshmen

As the 1979-1980 school year draws to a close, we realize that we have come a long way. However, there is a much greater distance to travel with many fascinating challenges to accept. Our school days have been the foundation of our education and with every new experience, we will continue to grow. Although we bid a fond farewell to the years that have just passed, we extend an enthusiastic welcome to those ahead of us. While looking back on Cotati High School, we will recall that it was a place to learn, a place to love, and a place to remember.

THE DAYS OF
